Re: United States v. Sam Reed, 15 Cr. 468-8 (VB)
Status Update

Dear Judge Briccetti:

The Government respectfully submits this letter regarding the status of Sam Reed's state criminal proceedings, which concern the same conduct that forms the basis of four specified violations of Reed's term of supervision.

On June 12, 2024, the Government notified the Court that, at that time, Reed had indicated that he was not interested in a pre-trial disposition of his state proceeding, and the Assistant District Attorney handling the case was expecting to seek to indict Reed in the coming weeks. But on August 13, 2024, the ADA informed the Government that Reed's state counsel was now asking the District Attorney's Office to forego seeking an indictment for the time being, as Reed would like to discuss a potential disposition. That process is still ongoing.

Given that Reed's state case remains pending, the Government respectfully requests that the Court adjourn the status conference currently scheduled for August 29, 2024, and set a new control date approximately 60 to 90 days thereafter. Should the Court grant that request, the Government will file a status update letter approximately one week before that control date (or at any other time ordered by the Court) to update the Court on the status of Reed's state prosecution. As Reed is not in federal custody and was released under the same conditions of supervision that he was already under before these violation proceedings were initiated, this adjournment should pose no hardship on Reed.

Defense counsel has indicated that Reed does not object to the Government's request.

Respectfully submitted,
